SECRET

The Honorable Bill Bradley
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Bradley:

As a follow-up to the Persian Gulf briefing you received on 25 April 1984 from CIA officer [redacted] we would like to make available to you two intelligence assessments on Islamic fundamentalism that were mentioned at the briefing. One deals with the impact of theology on Iranian politics and the other covers Iranian subversive activity in the Persian Gulf.

STAT

The classification levels of the reports prevents us from leaving them at your office. As an alternative, we have asked Don Wynnyczok, Security Officer for the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, to make them available for you to read at your convenience in SSCI offices, Room 211 Hart Building.

Should you wish to talk with the authors of the reports at any time, they will be happy to discuss their research and conclusions with you.

Sincerely,

/s/

Clair E. George
Director, Office of Legislative Liaison
